SUBJECT : Castro-Cuban Influence in Violent Demonstration of October 26, 1962.

REF : Department's Circular Airgram 801 of October 30, 1962.

The Embassy's airgram 366 reported communist-led violence in La Paz on October 26, 1962, and transmitted fly sheets issued by communist-front organizations. Copies of newspapers reporting the incident were sent by transmittal slip to ARA/WST. These newspapers showed pictures of the so-called "Assassin in Blue" who has been publicly identified as Walter QUISBERT Barrios. Glossy prints of the pictures appearing in the newspaper are being transmitted through other channels.

Walter Quisbert is a member of the pro-Castro MNR Youth Command. He traveled to Cuba in March 1962.

The following were seen passing out arms to members of the Central Obrera Boliviana and to members of the Avanzada Universitaria, a pro-Castro organization.

Simon REYES - Communist mine workers' leader from Potosí. Has traveled to Moscow.

Jaime de la TORRE - Labor leader who has traveled to Moscow.

Benedicto DELGADILLO - Member of pro-Castro Abraham Lincoln Brigade. Traveled to Cuba in January 1961. Member of Cochabamba COD, departmental labor confederation.

José María PALACIOS - National Deputy of the MNR party. Well-known pro-communist.
